

Georgianne Koch (Cincinnati)

Rules Official

Georgianne joined the WOSGA board in 2019. She graduated from The Ohio State University in 1983, subsequently earned an MBA from the University in Cincinnati, and worked for Great American Insurance until “retiring” to stay home with her two children. She has been playing golf since the age of 9, having learned the sport from her parents. One of her favorite golf memories is traveling to Southern California to play with her mother in 10 consecutive Member Guest events.

Georgianne is a member of Terrace Park Country Club in Cincinnati, where she is a member of the Green Committee and co-chair of the Ladies Invitational. She has won several Club and Senior Club Championships at Terrace Park Country Club as well as Beckett Ridge Country Club. She has been participating in WOSGA events since 2004. She was the Senior Division Champion of the Cincinnati Women’s Met in 2014 and the OWGA Champion in 2017.

Georgianne served on the Greater Cincinnati Women’s Golf Association board as Tournament Chair and President, Long Range Planning Committee member, and is the current Chair of the GCWGA Scholarship Foundation. Georgianne began as a Course Rater in 2003 with the GCWGA and subsequently the GCGA. In 2016, she began her next “career” as a Rules official, studying for and successfully taking the USGA test. She has since officiated at numerous GCGA Junior/Adult tournaments, OSHAA State Championships, WOSGA Amateur, SOPGA events, Women’s Western Junior Championship, and others.
